

October Program (6:45PM 2nd Monday): Joanna Price

Don't Forget: Name Tag, Show & Tell, Food Drive – canned vegetables, corn or beans
Fat Quarter Drawing: Brown

President's Message

Jill M.

At our October general meeting we will be receiving a report from our Nominating Committee recommending a slate of nominees for the officer positions of President, Vice Pres. #1 (programs), Vice Pres. #2 (workshops), Secretary, and Treasurer. Beyond these Officer positions, there are many other ways to serve the Guild. I encourage you to think of how you would like to help the Guild during 2017. If we each take on a small role, then the business of the Guild gets done. Give it some thought and find a place where you fit in - and have some fun with it! You can do things your way.....!

See you October 10!

Hospitality

Pat K., Rosie S.

Dear Quilters,
We appreciate these members who have volunteered to bring snacks to the meeting on October 10th:

- Refreshments
 - Shannon P--snack
 - Lani S--snack
 - Jean W--snack
 - Marie J--snack and punch
 - Pat W--water

If you find you are not able to bring what you volunteered to contribute, please contact Pat or Rosie- one of us will gladly be there to fill your spot.

Welcome New Members

Please welcome and introduce yourself to our newest Guild members:

- Eileen Heber
- Vicky DeMoss
- Jenny Jacox
- Maga Decker
- Pam Sorenson

Membership

Judy W, Ruth P, Marion M, Pam B

There is a great opportunity coming up for you to not only contribute to your Guild, but to get to know all the members who attend meetings. The 2017 Membership Chair position. I was on the Membership Committee in 2015 and have been the Chair for 2016. It is a relatively easy job. Yes, it gets a little frantic at the beginning of the year when everyone is renewing their memberships, but with a crew to help it works out just fine. Organizing the New Member Sewcial is an enjoyable part of the position, and anyone who has attended one can testify to what fun they are. One of the funnest parts of the job is the task of drawing the winning tickets at the end of the meeting! The only real requirements are to have a working knowledge of Excel and Word, and have general organizational skills. Please let me, Judy Woodfill, or Jill Monley know if you would like to fill this very necessary position; an important part of keeping the Guild functioning.

MT BACHELOR QUILTERS' GUILD

We are sad to learn of the recent death of Carol Spongberg's mother. Our sympathies are with her during this difficult time.

If you have anything you'd like to share, including general news about your fellow quilters or any guild members who need some cheering or have something to cheer about (including yourself), please pass the information on to Linda G.

Guild Library

Mary Ella S.

The Guild library is now located at MaryElla Strelchun's house. Contact her at 541-639-8441 or at marytunes@yahoo.com for requests or inquiries.

Sharing favorite quilting patterns has been occurring since people have landed on our shores. Our guild library has several Better Homes and Garden books compiling quilt patterns. A noteworthy collection is Quilt-Lovers Favorites. Volumes 3 to 10 present the most often requested quilts by readers of American Patchwork & Quilting magazine. The vivid photos, instructions and optional color and size charts lead the reader through the quilting process. You are bound to find a project for a special gift, so come and browse our shelves.

Community Food Drive

Jane Davis

Nativity Lutheran's food pantry served 162 families in August--this translates to 572 people for the month who were helped. Your donations of food or dollars to the food pantry are always helpful and appreciated.

Community Quilts

Diana L., Sue W., Cathy C.

Community Quilts workday will be Wednesday, October 12th from 11:00-2:30. We will meet, as usual, at Nativity Lutheran Church which is at the corner of SE Knott and Brosterhaus in Bend. Bring a Community Quilts project to work on, lunch and machine/notions for your project. If you don't have a CQ project, we have plenty at the church along with lots of nice fabric and batting. Contact one of us if you have any questions. We have distributed over 360 quilts so far this year.

NOVEMBER: Our next group project will be November 2nd. We will be making quilts that are themed for guys. As usual, Bev P will be doing the pattern and fabric will be pre-cut. This is not our normal "Community Quilts" workday, but the Wednesday after our November meeting is very late in the month—close to the holidays.

If you have a Community Quilt project from a kit or one of our group projects, please finish and turn-in by the end of November. We will make our last quilt distribution in early December. Thanks!!

2017 Guild Retreats

Toni M.

Our 2017 retreat will be March 3-5 and again be at Mt. Bachelor Village. It is a wonderful location and everyone enjoyed the 3 days of sewing, eating, and being together without chores! The food was great, demos informative, sewing blocks were popular, and the BINGO was fun. MBQG members were able to begin registering for the retreat at the July 2016 meeting. There is also a registration form on the website. Members have first priority but if the retreat does not fill, guests will be on a waiting list to register. Members who register and cannot attend can find a replacement to fill their spot, or the committee will try to fill the spot from a waiting list. Come join us next spring for a fun weekend!

MBQG Quilt Show in the Park 2017

Susan M.

You too can help our Guild by stepping up to chair the 2017 Quilt Show in the Park. I will be happy to assist you in learning all "the ropes" of the show. We have a wonderful group of members that step up to help in every way, but we need YOU to help organize everyone! Please let Jill or me know and we'll help you get started in the planning!

Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show: Calendars

Martha S.

This is from Jeanette Pilak. If you want a calendar, please rsvp to me, marthapsanders@gmail.com. We'd like to have these for the November meeting. You can also sign up at the October meeting, $10 cash or check only.

In Re: SOQS Men Behind the Quilts 2017 Calendar Offer for Central Oregon Guild Members

Dear Guilds:

Before we have our final holiday sales push of the few hundred SOQS Men Behind the Quilts 2017 Calendar ($12.00) which remain, we wanted to offer to the Central Oregon Guilds the opportunity for your Guild Members to purchase the 2017 calendars at the discounted rate of $10.00 and avoid any shipping fees that come with purchasing online.

Our calendars sell out: supplies are limited and available while they last – which should be until the end of October.

By making this offer we hope (a) your members will save a little money, (b) easily complete some early holiday shopping, and (c) we can set aside calendars for Central Oregon Guilds before they sell out.

Those wishing to purchase should make out a check to SOQS Calendars for the quantity of calendars they desire at $10.00 each and at the next meeting the SOQS staff will deliver calendars and pick up the payments from members.

Thank you in advance!
Jeanette Pilak and Tracy Alexander

Greetings from BJ's!

Thank you all so much for your support – the past three months have flown by! Some days I question my sanity for buying a quilt shop, but working with all of you is so rewarding that I know it was the right decision. Again, many, many thanks.

What's new at BJ's? Lots of new Cotton + Steel, over 60 bolts of luscious Bella solids, Marcia Derse's complete Alphabet line, over a dozen new bolts of Australian fabrics, 25 new Grunge blenders, batiks galore, several fun new lines from Moda... I could go on and on!

Fall classes are in full swing. Bevalee Runner is teaching hand appliqué and machine quilting, Nancy Fisher has a couple of wonderful foundation piecing projects in the works, and Patty Bowers is back with several Lumberyard scrappy projects. We hope you will take a class with us soon.

We have loved having the Mountain Meadows Hexie quilts in our Hall of Fame, so much that we're doing a Hexie theme for the Central Oregon Shop Hop October 13-16. We hope to see you then. Our next Hall of Fame exhibit features Christmas quilts from our panel challenge and will be up by the end of the month. Come vote for your favorite quilt – the winner receives a $50 gift card.

Drum roll please... If you haven't heard, First Saturday resumes in January! We have picked one Block of the Month program already and have our sights on another one. Watch for an announcement after we return from Quilt Market at the end of October.

QuiltWorks Gallery: Our Featured Quilter for October is Corni Quinlivan from Bend. Corni has a number of different quilting styles and every project is unique and fresh. Our group exhibit will be from the Central Oregon SAQA (Studio Art Quilt Associates); their challenge "A View From Above".

October First Friday - Mark your calendars for October 7 and join us for our First Friday Gallery Reception and sale. We love to honor our Featured Quilter and our other exhibitors. The reception is from 5 to 7PM. We'll have refreshments, door prizes and an all-day sale.

Second Saturday Strip Club – Our next Strip Club is coming up October 8. Each month we'll share new quilt projects, everyone gets a Tease Bag, Show and Tell is encouraged and lots of fun door prizes. The cost is $10 a month and you'll love the fun, education and community with each month's Strip Club.

Fall Classes - Our fall classes have started! Visit our website or come into the shop to see our samples and pick up a schedule. We have some fun, brand new projects to share with you.

Row by Row Experience is in hibernation! - September 6 through October 31 is the "Hibernation" period where patterns can't be given out and kits can't be mailed. After that you can resume picking up the free patterns and/or buying a kit.

Quilt Central Oregon - This is the third year that the 7 Central Oregon quilt shops are sponsoring an educational Shop Hop called Quilt Central Oregon. Mark your calendars for Thursday, Oct. 13 through Sunday Oct. 16. Pick up a passport at your first stop, get it stamped, learn and experience demos from all the shops. Complete the Hop and your name will be entered to win one of 35 gift certificates! Plus each shop will have an in-house basket of prizes as well.

November Gallery - The November Inspirations Small Quilt Show will be our exhibit for the month. Everyone is welcome to participate. Quilts can be no larger than 176" perimeter and have not been shown in the gallery before.

Monthly Get-Togethers open to all:

- Woolie Mammoths - 2nd & 4th Tuesdays, Noon to 4PM
- Central Oregon Modern Quilt Guild - 1st Tuesdays from 5 - 8PM

Greetings from Jean-----

Our Cut Goods Coordinator, Tamra Dumolt, will be moving to Bellevue, WA in November since her husband has accepted a promotion in his company. We are really going to miss her! She is going to come back for quilt show to help us out and teach at Quilter's Affair. At the moment we are starting to plan kits, bundles, and seeing tons of fabric with after the first of the year delivery. We went to a show last weekend and found some wonderful new lines of fabric and scouted out several quilt shops and had a very fun two days.

For those of you who can't resist beautiful hand dyed yarn, we just received a huge shipment of Malabrigo in the following weights: two lace weights, sock, DK, worsted, and Bulky. I was blown away by the colors. Twigs will host their annual YARN TASTING on Friday, October 7 from 5 to 7. For those of you who have never attended it is a very festive event. You will receive samples, enough yardage to try knitting, view the fabulous truck show from Malabrigo, and yummy snacks from Vaunell. Plan to attend even if you are just thinking about knitting. I am not much of a knitter but cannot resist the evening and the COLOR!!!

On the agenda for October we have the Education based Central Oregon Shop Hop on 13 - 16. We will be featuring the new line from Bend artist Tom Browning entitled "Pioneer Spirit" which features pioneer women. We have two quilts that will be shown. And Annette and Tamra have outdone themselves and the planning of the demos. You won't want to miss it.

The full line of Tula Pink fabric, "Slow and Steady" has arrived and it is fabulous! Our rabbit motif is stunning. Last week Marsha Derse's new line "Alphabet" also arrived and Kayley and Barbara are both in the process of finishing up quilts for the store. More "Marks" has arrived so Tamra will be preparing kits and the pattern book that we created will be here in a couple of weeks. Lots of excitement here at The Stitchin' Post and Twigs!

We look forward to seeing you!
