

MT BACHELOR QUILTERS' GUILD

September Program (6:45PM 2nd Monday): Janet Fogg

Don't Forget: Name Tag, Show & Tell, Food Drive – canned refried beans
Fat Quarter Drawing: Orange

President's Message

Jill M.

How about that Quilt Show!!!! Beautiful quilts....strong Challenge Quilt exhibit.....outstanding Boutique items....well organized Sales Table.....and great weather....! THANK YOU each and all of you for doing your part to make it a success! And, at our September meeting we will hear about the winners of the Challenge Quilt and People's Choice.

Also in September we will begin planning for 2017 so come prepared to raise your hand and volunteer.... We will need a Nominating Committee to develop a proposed slate of Officers for 2017 and also need members to serve on the Budget Committee to develop a proposed 2017 budget. Neither of these assignments requires a lot of time however, both assignments need to complete their work in Sept. and Oct so members can vote on the proposals in November. And, if you have any interest in serving as an officer or committee chair please let me, or a committee member, know. Filling leadership positions early allows a smoother transition into the next year. If we each do a little bit to help the Guild, then the business of the Guild gets done.

See you September 12 at the General Membership meeting!

Welcome New Members

Please welcome and introduce yourself to our newest Guild member: Larkin Kime

Hospitality

These figures include the net receipts from the Quilt Show and the first attendee deposits for the 2017 Retreat.

Raffle Quilt 2016 Prize Winner

Susan M. drew the winning ticket at the guild quilt show on August 20th. Congratulations Pat!! You are the owner of a beautiful quilt.

With the help of guild members, the 2016 Raffle Quilt was a great success. Thanks to Donna C. for her original design, all the sewers, Julia J. for quilting, and all those who volunteered to sell raffle tickets in and around Bend and in Sun River, 18 locations in all. The final tally was $2,629.00 raised for the guild. MBQG rocks!

Thanks everyone.
Dottie K.

Thank you all so much for the beautiful raffle quilt that I won! I love being a part of this great organization and will cherish the quilt forever. It means so much to me because I actually helped piece it this year and had a fun time helping out. Here is a photo of the quilt under construction.

Community Quilts

Diana L., Sue W., Cathy C.

Community Quilts workday will be Wednesday, September 14th from 11:00-2:30. We will meet, as usual, at Nativity Lutheran Church which is at the corner of SE Knott and Brosterhaus in Bend. Bring a Community Quilts project to work on, lunch and machine/notions for your project. If you don't have a CQ project, we have plenty at the church along with lots of nice fabric and batting. Contact one of us if you have any questions.

NOVEMBER: Our next group project will be November 2nd. We will be making quilts that are themed for guys. As usual, Bev P will be doing the pattern and fabric will be pre-cut. This is not our normal "Community Quilts" workday, but the Wednesday after our November meeting is very late in the month—close to the holidays.

2016 MBQG Quilt Show in the Park

Susan M.

Beautiful! What a wonderful day we enjoyed for our annual Quilt Show in the Park. THANK YOU to any and all of the members for helping make our show fabulous! The special exhibits looked great and our TWO Featured Quilters had many folks treated to their beautiful, creative work. We'll learn which quilts won the three Viewer's Choice awards at our September meeting. Please email me if you have any suggestions/comments to include in the show "notes".

We'll need a new CHAIRPERSON for our 2017 Quilt Show in the Park—think about it and let Jill M. or me know—I'm happy to help you learn the "job"!

THANK YOU again for another successful Quilt Show!

Quilt Show Boutique

Louise T.

The weather was hot and so were sales at the MBQG Boutique table where shoppers chose from a large variety of handmade items. The best sellers were microwave bowls, crocheted dishrags, potholders, pincushions, sewing machine covers, trash bags for the car, snap bags, sewing table trash bags with an attached pincushion, and sewing pedal pads. Thanks to all of the members who contributed items for sale as well as to those who set up the boutique display and helped with purchases: Jody Faraci, Gia Gavino, Judy Harbin, Sue Misner, Toni Morris, Jan Sheerin, Judy Woodfill and Ardith Youngers. Final figures will be announced at the September guild meeting. It's not too early to start gathering ideas for next year's boutique!

Raffle Quilt 2017

For Board and Committee Members, please have your submissions for the October Newsletter to me on or before Monday, September 26th. Thank you!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Programs

Kathleen G.

Our program this month will feature Quilter and Artist Janet Fogg from Lake Oswego, OR. Her presentation will be eye popping! Janet started sewing at a young age and she knew she wanted to be an artist. Now, she holds many awards, but her favorite ribbons are the nine Viewer's Choice ribbons. That says lots!

Workshops

Suzanne M. and Corni Q.

The upcoming classes in September and October are currently full, but we can take sign-ups on a wait-list basis.

QuiltWorks would like to display the Challenge quilts in September.

September's First Friday is Sept. 2. They need the descriptions by next week Friday August 26 at the latest, and the quilts by Monday August 29. Please send your description to me, txjourney@hotmail.com. I will collect them all and send them to QuiltWorks as one file. You will be responsible for transporting your quilt to QuiltWorks.

Here's a brief description sample for what I need: the name of the quilt followed by your name.

For example:

The Pear by Marilyn Forestell

There was a pear picture on page 38 of Mary Jane's Farm in the August edition from 2014. Something about the way the sun was shining on the pears and all the different colors that were highlighted just spoke to me. I thought that this would make a nice quilt for myself or as a gift for a friend.

2017 Guild Retreats

Toni M.

Our 2017 retreat will be March 3-5 and again be at Mt. Bachelor Village. It is a wonderful location and everyone enjoyed the 3 days of sewing, eating, and being together without chores! The food was great, demos informative, sewing blocks were popular, and the BINGO was fun. MBQG members will be able to begin registering for the retreat at the July 2016 meeting, where there will be forms to fill out. There is also a registration form on the website. Members have first priority but if the retreat does not fill, guests will be on a waiting list to register. Members who register and cannot attend can find a replacement to fill their spot, or the committee will try to fill the spot from a waiting list. Come join us next spring for a fun weekend!

QuiltWorks Gallery: Our Featured Quilter for August is Patti Stewart from Bend. Patti has a number of different quilting styles and every project is unique and fresh. Our group exhibit will be from the Mt. Bachelor Quilt Guild's 2016 Challenge; "Page 38". The could take any page 38 from a magazine with the exception of a quilting or crafting publication and come up with a unique idea/ design for a quilt.

September First Friday - Mark your calendars for September 2nd and join us for our First Friday Gallery Reception and sale. We love to honor our Featured Quilter and our other exhibitors. The reception is from 5 to 7PM. We'll have refreshments, door prizes and an all-day sale.

Second Saturday Strip Club – Our next Strip Club is coming up September 10. Each month we'll share new quilt projects, everyone gets a Tease Bag, Show and Tell is encouraged and lots of fun door prizes. The cost is $10 a month and you'll love the fun, education and community with each month's Strip Club.

Fall Classes - Our fall class schedule is out! Visit our website or come into the shop to see our samples and pick up a schedule. We have some fun, brand new projects to share with you.

Row by Row Experience is coming to a close! - And we still have a pack of 25 fat quarters to give out to the first person to bring in a quilted, bound, finished quilt with at least 8 rows. September 6 through October 31 is the "Hibernation" period where patterns can't be given out and kits can't be sold. After that you can resume picking up the free patterns and/or buying a kit.

Quilt Central Oregon - This is the third year that the 7 Central Oregon quilt shops are sponsoring an educational Shop Hop call Quilt Central Oregon. Mark your calendars for Thursday, Oct. 13 through Sunday Oct. 16. Pick up a passport at your first stop, get it stamped, learn and experience demos from all the shops.

MT BACHELOR QUILTERS' GUILD

Complete the Hop and your name will be entered to win one of 35 gift certificates! Plus each shop will have an in-house basket of prizes as well.

October Gallery - Corni Quinliven from Bend will be our Featured Quilter in September. Our group exhibit is from SAQA (Studio Art Quilt Associates) and it's their challenge "View from Above".

Monthly Get-Togethers open to all:

- Woolie Mammoths - 2nd & 4th Tuesdays, Noon to 4PM
- Central Oregon Modern Quilt Guild - 1st Tuesdays from 5 - 8PM
- Days for Girls - Meets the 1st and 3rd Mondays from 1 to 4PM
- Applique Group - Meets the 1st Tuesday of every month, 10 to 12 noon

Thanks for being great customers!

Marilyn and everyone from QuiltWorks

Hi to all our quilting friends, Does it seem like summer is just flying? Well we are back in full swing, our classroom is open now and classes have resumed. A few of our Block of the Months have started but you can still join us, the Holiday Wishes is fabulous and you could still have it done for the holiday. We will be emailing information on the new wool Block of the Month "Bringing Home The Tree", this is one of our favorites, we have been signing people up even though all they have seen is the picture! If you have been wanting to learn machine quilting you will want to take Pat Roland's class. She is a fabulous teacher and everyone raves about her classes. If you like hand embroidery as well as piecing the "Vintage Blossoms" Block of the Month is for you.

Check out our website, you can see our new fabric lines and we are adding classes almost weekly. Or even better come to the shop to see all the new items.

Thank you,
Sharon, Gail and our wonderful staff

- Carpenter's Wheel Medallion with Sue McMahan: September 26, 9:00-12:00
- Poppin' Pincushions & Pinpillows with Tonye B. Phillips: September 27, 9:00-3:00
- Knitting the Bookstack Cowl with Patricia Drake: September 29 & Oct 6, 12:00-3:00
- Circling Kaffe (Dresden Plate Variation) with Nancy Geddis: September 30, 9:00-4:00

Don't forget, there are still openings in the "Art Talk" Lecture with Rosalie Dace & Cynthia Corbin at Five Pine Lodge: Wednesday, September 28, 2016, from 6:30 - 7:30 pm

New fabrics and upcoming lines: "Logos" and "Hot Dogs, Cool Cats" from Windham, and the "Sweet Meadow" flannel baby panel from Wilmington have arrived, and we are expecting several flannel lines: "Woolies" from Maywood Studio, "Wilderness" from Clothworks, and Criss Cross from Wilmington. We are also really looking forward to Marcia Derse's new line from Windham, called "Studio Alphabet." The digitally printed main panel print features colored block letters accompanied by vintage photographs, and journal excerpts that are ideal for fussy cutting and patchwork quilting.

In our Yarn Department, we have just received Mirasol's Super-Bulky, wool/poly blend "Ushuya;" DK weight "Cumbria," a Masham wool, Merino, and mohair blend from the Fiber Co; and Auracania's "Lujoso," a worsted-weight blend of baby alpaca, Merino wool, and silk.

Twigs Gallery: Our September show opens on the 4th Friday of August, the 26th, and will feature local artists: Carol Webb, Sarah Kaufman, & Sheila Finzer. Our October show opens on the 4th Friday, September 23, and will feature the work of June Jaeger - "From the Forest."

There are so many fun things happening at BJ's! Fresh paint, new seating for those of you who enjoy hand embroidery and applique (oh, yes, comfy chairs for the hubbies, too!), lots of new fabrics and classes. We're having an Open House on Sunday, August 28 from 11-4 to celebrate our new look and our new class schedule. Come meet the teachers, enjoy a snack, and maybe win a door prize.

If you're a Lori Holt fan, there's still time to join us for the Cozy Christmas sew along. We've got a few complete kits available; the kit price includes a weekly "Stitching with Stacy" mini-session to keep your project on track. Speaking of the holidays, there is still time to sign up for our Christmas panel challenge. Please see the store website for details.

First Saturday will be back in January! We are finalizing details for our block of the month offerings, so stay tuned. As always, thank you for your support. We love seeing all of you and helping with your quilting projects.
