President's Message

Jill M.

Its Quilt Show month! The weather is great and it is so special and fun to share our quilts with the greater Bend community. I hope every member is submitting at least one quilt to be displayed in the show. Other articles in this newsletter give information on exactly how to enter a quilt....and/or how to place items for sale on the 'Sales Table'. Bring your friends and family down to Pioneer Park for our very unique... Quilt Show in the Park on Saturday August 20....10: a.m. to 4:p.m.

And how about our outrageous 2016 "Page 38" Challenge Quilts. Wow! What an outstanding display of creativity and ingenuity. To all 24 members who completed a Challenge quilt.....thank you! And hats off to you for rising to the 'challenge'. If you missed seeing the 'Page 38s' - come to the quilt show and check them out....along with many other special exhibits.

Please remember that there is NO GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETING in August. Our next meeting will be September 12.

Welcome New Members

Please welcome and introduce yourself to our newest Guild members.

Hospitality

Pat K., Rosie S.

Dear Quilters,
We will not have snack and drink volunteers this month since there is no meeting.

Membership

Judy W, Ruth P, Marion M, Pam B

Membership has a table at our Quilt Show, and I am looking for members to spend an hour attending to that table. You will be able to sit in the shade for that hour and have a cool drink (you will provide the drink), answering questions people might have and signing them up to be members. It will be a quite pleasant job, especially if you and a friend share the chore. Please talk to me at the Membership Table when you arrive at the July meeting and let me know if you are willing to help out.
Thank you

Get well cards were sent to two members earlier this month. Kathy C. broke her hip in a fall running an errand after our July guild meeting. She had total hip replacement and is on the mend. JoAnne Meyers was a bit under the weather and is hopefully back to her cheerful self again.

If you have anything you'd like to share, including general news about your fellow quilters or any guild members who need some cheering or have something to cheer about (including yourself), please pass the information on to Linda G.

Community Quilts

Diana L., Sue W., Cathy C.

Community Quilts workday will be Wednesday, August 10th from 11:00-2:30. We will meet, as usual, at Nativity Lutheran Church which is at the corner of SE Knott and Brosterhaus in Bend. Bring a Community Quilts project to work on, lunch and machine/notions for your project. If you don't have a CQ project, we have plenty at the church along with lots of nice fabric and batting. Contact one of us if you have any questions.

AUGUST: There will be no quilting on August 3rd due to Vacation Bible School at the church. Our Community Quilts workday will be on the 10th.

NOVEMBER: Our next group project will be November 2nd. We will be making quilts that are themed for guys. As usual, Bev P will be doing the pattern and fabric will be pre-cut. This is not our normal “Community Quilts” workday, but the Wednesday after our November meeting is very late in the month—close to the holidays.

Thank you for all the quilts turned in so far this year. We will make our second distribution to the agencies right after our quilt show.

The patterns for our two group projects in 2016 are now on MBQG blog. Look at the bottom of the Community Quilts page to download or print.

If you are thinking about making a Community Quilt, please consider making a “guy” quilt. We support both J Bar J Ranch and Cascade Youth which need male themed quilts. J Bar J has boys from 11-17 and Cascade Youth has teens--boys and girls. We could use more “guy” quilts about 60”x72” in size.

Workshops

Suzanne M. and Corni Q.

There are still five spaces available for the September 14th workshop with Janet Fogg. It will feature one of the cute kits she has designed of various animals or flowers (your choice) and you can see what is available on her website, under “shop”. The cost is $5 for the room rental plus the price of whichever kit you select. We don’t have another meeting until September, so if you want to sign up, please contact Suzanne M by email or phone. The workshop in October on Zendoolding with Joanna Price is full.

2016 MBQG Quilt Show in the Park

Susan M.

WOW! We are just weeks away from presenting our Quilt Show to everyone! Things are going smoothly in preparation and hope you’re looking forward to our day in the park as much as I am. Don’t forget to COME EARLY for set-up (7 a.m.)—we appreciate all the help and encourage you to bring work gloves, step ladder, a chair/lunch/water, Sales items, and be ready for a wonderful day in the park with friends and family.

We have several Special Exhibits for the show and would love to have any other small group featured if I have not listed you! So far, Novel Idea, Blockin’ Robins, Book/Scissors/Quilt, Central Oregon Modern Quilt Guild, Bobbin Robins, MBQG Page 38, UnderCover Quilters, and of course our Featured Quilters: Cindy O. and Sue W.

Please remember, each Quilt entered needs a MBQG Quilt Label in addition to a fabric label on the back. Also, sort through those sewing items and prepare your list of items for the Sales Tables. If you have any questions, please don’t hesitate to call or email me. It’s going to be another beautiful show!

Boutique

Louise T.

The MBQG Quilt Show and Boutique will be here soon. The Boutique has many wonderful handmade items so please be sure to come by our tables and give in to the temptation to snag some unique finds. Treat yourself or get a gift for someone else - you’ll be helping to support guild programs as well. The selection includes tote bags, potholders and dishcloths, cute trash bags for your sewing room or car, knitted hats, doll blankets, Christmas ornaments, luggage tags, pincushions . . . and so much more! You don’t want to miss it!

MBQG 2016 Quilt Show Sales Table Reminder

As you prepare items for the Guild Quilt Show Sales Table here are a few key things to keep in mind:

- Each seller is limited to 100 items
- Most importantly—every item for sale must be clearly labeled with a name and number. Due to the number of participants initials are not enough for labeling. Please devise a system whereby each seller is clearly noted. For example, Jane Smith could be J. Smith or J. Smi.
- Show Inventory lists and guidelines are on the web site.
- For questions contact Debbie Hall deborahahall@bendbroadband.com.

2017 Guild Retreats

Toni M.

Our 2017 retreat will be March 3-5 and again be at Mt. Bachelor Village. It is a wonderful location and everyone enjoyed the 3 days of sewing, eating, and being together without chores! The food was great, demos informative, sewing blocks were popular, and the BINGO was fun. MBQG members will be able to begin registering for the retreat at the July 2016 meeting, where there will be forms to fill out. There is also a registration form on the website. Members have first priority but if the retreat does not fill, guests will be on a waiting list to register. Members who register and cannot attend can find a replacement to fill their spot, or the committee will try to fill the spot from a waiting list. Come join us next spring for a fun weekend!

SPECIAL NOTICE:

Guild Board meetings usually take place on the fourth Monday of each month at 6:00 p.m. at Partners In Care. However, the August Board meeting will instead take place on Monday August 29th at 5:30 p.m. at the picnic shelter at Pilot Butte Park in Bend. Board meetings are open to all members.

Hi Ladies,

Thank you so much for your continued support of the quilt show in so very many ways: exciting quilts, volunteering for hostess, hanging, office, etc. I am looking forward to coming to your show and being a guest and buying potholders. You always have a wonderful show and it is hung so nicely.

As you know this is our HUGE inventory time of year and I planned ahead so we would have lots of great fabric, etc. for the whole summer. We actually had five big boxes arrive from Cotton and Steel the day before quilt show, they read the shipping date wrong and sent it a month early. It is all the bolts I choose at market. Val created a wonderful display of our Christmas collections in her market booth in the classroom, it is wonderful and full of some really beautiful offerings. Our batiks inventory (largest selection in Central Oregon) filled the classroom at quilt show and it is stunning. Fun, fun Halloween fabric and my two older granddaughters, Violette 8, (who had her first quilt in the quilt show), and Olivia 10, made up samples of trick or treat bags on the new Sparrow Sewing machines that we are carrying. These are their first store samples. The Sparrow machines are all metal in the inside and sew like a dream. They are entry level machines and very affordable. I have been sewing on one at the moment since my big Bernina is on the fritz. They are great for a class machine or a granddaughter. We have them set up in the classroom so you can try them out. See you at your show!

Don't miss the new fabric line, "Marks!" This new line captures the freedom of the out-of-doors in pattern, color, and texture. The woven imagery was created with hand-carved blocks, carefully layered and painted, resulting in three unique color palettes: Charcoal, Saffron, and Indigo.

We still have "Men Behind the Quilts 2017" calendars in stock, if you missed getting one at the show. We have a few t-shirts and tote bags remaining as well.

Coming this fall, we have a few openings in three art quilting & design workshops with Rosalie Dace: "Dancing on the Tightrope," Monday - Friday, August 22 - 26, 2016
"Walking The Line," Monday -

Wednesday, August 29 - 31, 2016

"Pattern, Rhythm and Repetition," Thursday - Friday, September 1 & 2, 2016

Rosalie is a wonderful, inspiring teacher, and not to be missed!

Also, don't forget the Low Immersion/Ice Dyeing workshop this September from Carlene Keller—the students that took her classes last summer absolutely loved it! You can sign up on our website.

Twigs Gallery: Our August show opens on the 4th Friday of July, the 22nd, and will feature a group of amazing fiber artists: Chris Brown, Terry Grant, Mary Goodson & Laura Jaszowski. Our September show opens on the 4th Friday, August 26, and will showcase local art quilters Carol Webb, Sarah Kaufman, and Sheila Finzer, each with a unique view of the landscape and history of Central Oregon.

Greetings from BJ's! Now that Quilt Show craziness is over, we're gearing up for Fall classes and our new Block of the Month programs. Stay tuned for details! I just placed some big fabric orders – wait until you see the yummy things that are coming in later this year.

We're sponsoring a Christmas in July Challenge. Choose from one of three Christmas panels, make a quilt in your choice of pattern and technique, and you could win a $50 BJ's gift card. Quilts will hang in our Hall of Fame in October; viewer's choice determines the winner.

Please join us for a celebration to wish Vicki the best in her "retirement." Stop by the store on Sunday, July 31 from 1-3PM. See you there!

We are looking for a friendly, creative addition to our Inspiration Team. If you love fabric (who doesn't!) and enjoy helping people, please stop by the shop to submit an application.

Hi Everyone,

By now you probably know that Quilters Attic has closed its doors. It is not with a heavy heart that I say this, as I am looking forward to retirement (for reals this time!) and having my life back (especially the luxury of TIME). I am sorry, however, that I couldn't find a buyer for this sweet little shop. I want to thank my loyal customers from the bottom of my heart, and I wish only continued success and prosperity for our local quilt shops. We are so lucky that we live where we do...our quilt shops are awesome. Anyway, the best of luck to you all, have a wonderful August, and happy quilting!

Have a super-fine day.
