President's Message

Wynne Osborne

Hello to all,
Here we are in November and it is finally getting cold.

And I have been sewing so much that I did not get anything pruned back for winter. Is it too late?

November is high on my list because it is Thanksgiving, my favorite holiday. Thanksgiving holds a special place in my heart as a time centered on family. As a child I loved having the huge family dinner on my aunt and uncle's ranch with grandparents and special cousins and a large extended family close by. (Plus snitching pieces of turkey skin as my uncle carved the bird). As an adult I love sharing family traditions with my grown children, young grandchildren and tear up as I remember beloved family who are with me in spirit. And I still love crisp turkey skin.

So everyone give thanks for blessings large and small. This year I will be giving special thanks for all the wonderful women who have done so much to make my two years as guild President an easy task. Many THANKS!

Wynne

Oh, and don't forget to come to the November meeting, vote for our new officers and by-law changes (I promise it will be painless). Louise is arranging another cool video and you have another chance to volunteer for 2019. See you on November 12.

Hospitality

Suzanne Martin

HOSPITALITY

Many thanks to everyone for the yummy snacks in October, and to Eileen Heber for the cute table decor!

For November we will be treated by Pam Beyer, Martha Sanders, Sylvia Knudtson, and Sonia Jager, with Kathleen Garton on punch detail. If you enjoy a snack, please thank the hostesses.

HOLIDAY PARTY

Our annual holiday party will be on Monday, December 10th, from 6:00 to 8:30pm at the Bend Parks and Rec. Building, 799 SW Columbia, in the "Riverbend Community Room". Please save the date and plan to join us to celebrate the season with your quilting friends.

There will be clipboards at the November meeting for table decorating hostesses, and a few other helpful jobs. If you cannot attend the meeting, you may email Suzanne Martin at suzannem@bendbroadband.com to sign up for a table.

As in years past, the dinner will be potluck. We rotate the alphabet each year, so here is the list according to your last name:

- A-H main dish
- I-O dessert
- P-Z salad/side dish

This year we will be supporting the Nativity

Lutheran Food Bend. Their dedication to this mission provides much-needed support to many local families. We will also accept donations for the entertainment, so bring some cash. And if you want to participate in a gift exchange, please bring a wrapped gift, cost at not more than $10. We are suggesting something related to quilting or sewing.

Thank you in advance for your support of the holiday party. Our guild is stronger through the continued personal connections that we make, and sharing around delicious food, beautiful quilts, and fun entertainment!

We were very sad to learn of two deaths that impacted our quilt guild family. One of our mother/daughter pairs - Nada Torgerson and Kris Lang - lost their husband and father, respectively, early this month. Late this month, Barb Perin's husband Dave died after an extended battle with cancer. On a happier note, Lynn Hart is recovering nicely from her knee replacement surgery.

Designing Patchwork on Your Computer by Carol Phillipson

Looking for more options to add personal touches to your quilts without spending hours drawing and redrawing designs? You'll find the answers you seek in Designing Patchwork on Your Computer. The book and enclosed CD provide step-by-step instructions for designing a wide range of patchwork blocks. Using just a few keystrokes, and then combining the blocks to create customized quilts and wall hangings. Additional chapters on color selection and customizing, sashing and borders help you to expand your skills. Bonus CD contains 100 ready-made templates, grids and patchwork patterns. Instructions refer to a basic graphics program included in most computers.'

Membership Committee

Lynn Hart, Patricia Pianavilla, Catherine Anderson, Sandy Combs & Carol Luther

Please give our two new members a great guild welcome. Emily Nolan and Janet Hendrickson joined the guild at the October meeting.

With the holiday season rapidly approaching we hope that our members will remember to mark the calendar for the Holiday Party. We have a lot of fun, have a great chance to meet other members and share some fine food, and if you have your nametag on, you will be eligible for the great door prizes from our local shops. This event is also the kickoff for the 2019 membership drive.

Join our fun group on Wednesday's. We can supply all the fabric and batting for one of your favorite patterns, or you can pick from one of the many kits we have.

We are currently getting many requests for larger kids quilts. We'd like to suggest nothing smaller than 45" x 50"

We meet at Nativity Lutheran Church from 11:00 to 2:30. Address: 60850 Brosterhous Rd. Stop by our table at the next meeting to pick up a precut kit to make into your next community quilt.

Mark your calendars for Nov 28. Join us for a Holiday potluck at Nativity Lutheran Church. More details to come.

Community Food Drive

Lynda Burns

Having the two silver-tongued gentleman from Nativity Lutheran Church (Pastor Chris Kramer and Bill Von Til) speak at our September meeting really impressed us and we donated BIG!

Our September total donation was $361.24. Way to go, ladies!

October donations were a little less impressive. We donated $56.80 at the general meeting and $45.83 at the Wednesday Sew Days, for an October total of $101.83.

Please submit your December newsletter articles to me no later than November 30th.

Is there anyone interested in taking over the newsletter duties? I will show you exactly what to do. Sign up sheet will be going around again at the November guild meeting. Or contact me personally.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Programs

Louise Cornett

The guild program on November 12 will include our annual business meeting.

Following that, we will enjoy a video presentation on Needles and Tension from Superior Threads.

Workshops

Celia Carlson

No more workshops scheduled for 2018.

2019 Quilt Retreat

Retreat Committee

The committee met last month to prepare for our MBQG Retreat--we have some fun activities planned and of course, lots of sewing time! We have a full list of retreat attendees but are happy to put you on the wait list in case an opening happens. The balance of the retreat registration will be due in January. Please continue to give Sue Mondry or Suzi Thomasen your empty thread spools. Thank you MBQG members!

Boutique

Kay Gutierrez

Nothing new to report.

2018 Quilt Challenge

Linda Nelson

The 2019 challenge will be announced at the January 2019 meeting. This will give everyone 5-6 months to create a quilt.

Bylaws and Standing Rules for the Guild

Jill Monley

As required by the Guild's bylaws, a committee is set up every two years to review the Bylaws and Standing Rules for the Guild. At the November meeting, members will be asked to approve changes to both the Bylaws and the Standing Rules. None of these changes are major. A summary list of the changes was sent out by email to all members in the last week of October. Please refer to that list for specifics. If you have any questions prior to the November meeting, please call Catherine A. or Jill M.

You can click on the links to read the entire Bylaws and Standing Rules documents on the Mt. Bachelor Quilt Guild website.

The pdf of proposed changes are included in the email with the newsletter.

Well here we are in the month of November, it's hard to believe that we are nearing the end of the year. You still have time to get those Christmas gifts done and we are here to help with whatever you need.

We had a great Fall Shop Hop and thank everyone who came out and supported the shops.

We are still receiving new fabrics, notions, books, patterns and yarns so come and see what we have. Don't forget to come down on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month for your 20% off.

Just a reminder that we will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, and we will open back up on Friday the 23rd. We hope you all have a great day with your friends and family.

Our new class schedule is in the works so if you want a specific class please call and let us know.

If you have not been able to make it down we have our driveway back open and street lights are up and working. The next step is for the planting.

Happy Quilting,
Cathy and Staff

Hi Ladies,

It certainly is feeling like the creative season with the cooler weather and leaves falling. It makes me want to sew, and that I am doing. It seems like there is always something to make. I have seen so many of you planning projects this fall, and can't wait to see the show and tell. I wanted to call your attention to some of the happenings going on at The Stitchin' Post this time of year.

* Val and I will be at quilt market in Houston finding all kinds of new products and fabric for the coming season.

* November 10 ... PJ Sale, our second most famous event of the year. This is an early bird sale and from 6:30 to 8:30 it is 30% off but if you are wearing pajamas it is another 5%= 35%.....the discount goes down from there throughout the day. The restaurants in town love this day since many of you go to breakfast with your friends.

* Fabric Arrivals: designer flannel prints great for PJ Pants, Spotted Collection of textured solids from Moda, Mer Batik from Windham (pink and grey batik collection – we will have a kit), Virtuosa from Art Gallery, a fabulous group from Bari J.

* Classes: Tiny House Trio and Holiday Postcards with Tonye Phillips, Eco-Printed Scarf with Casey Newman, Cork Purses and Totes with Lorraine Wilkens, Boot Camp Beginning Quilting with Lawry Thorn, Metolius (fish quilt) with me (Jean), Mini Mystery with Lawry, Jen Kingwell Sewing Circle with Anna Bates and Shannon Poe, ongoing Adventures in Art Quilting with me, Knit Your Spirit Tailgating Party with Pat Drake, & Block Print Gifts with Valori Wells

* November 23, 24, 25: Christmas in the Mountains Gift Gallery

* December 1: Kathy Deggendorfer and Friends Holiday Open House at Artworks in Sisters (204 W Adams –Ash and Adams) 9 to 3 (This is always a very fun event with wonderful finds for the holidays)

See you on the 10th in your jammies!

Looks like we may be waving goodbye to our Indian Summer, doesn't it? As we write this, the wind is turning the parking lot yellow and orange with leaves. And just how many hours have YOU spent outside doing fall cleanup?

Friday, November 16th is the start of Bernina's Holiday Financing offer. Buy an 880 Plus, a 790 Plus or a 770QE (all Anniversary Editions), and you'll qualify for 0% interest for 48 months with approved credit. Come in and see us for details. We have them in stock and ready to go home with you. November's "Foot of the Month" isn't a foot! Bernina is offering 25% off the Magnifying Lens set for your machine.

Great news! Our Bernina Factory Certified Technician is back from his road trip, ready to clean, oil and adjust your sewing machine so it is in tip top condition for the holidays.

Are you thinking about Christmas? Come in to Sew Many Quilts for lots of inspiration to make your decor or gifts.

Classes are in full swing at Sew Many Quilts. Beginning Free Motion Quilting is scheduled right after Thanksgiving - we know several of you are waiting for it to be offered again, so be sure to sign up right away. Pat's class always fills quickly. Check out Twister Tray with Gail on November 16th - it uses the Bosal stiffener, and will brighten your holiday decor! Fairly new on the sewing and quilting scene is CORK. We now stock cork in several colors, and will be offering a machine embroidery class called Cork Bloom Bags the first week of December. Try something new!

We value your business and treasure your friendship! Happy Thanksgiving!

Hello From BJ's!

Shop Hop was great fun, thank you all for making the trek to visit all 7 shops. We will have a fall shop hop again next year, although the date is likely to change a bit to minimize the chance of snowy weather. Stayed tuned for that.

We are offering some fun Block of the Month quilts again next year and we hope you will join us. You can sign up in the shop or online (coming very soon!). I have wanted to make Jen Kingwell's "Long Time Gone" quilt for ages, now I will have an excuse! We are also offering a gorgeous quilt made with sea glass-inspired batiks and another in fun contemporary prints from Moda. Give us a call or check our website for details, and we hope to see you on the first Saturday in January when the fun begins!

I hate to be the bearer of bad news, but a few fabric companies have announced price hikes. Boo hiss! Most quilt-shop-quality printed fabrics are made in Japan or South Korea, so I don't think the price increase is due to tariffs (but what do I know?). The good news is that prices for digitally printed goods are coming down, and in many cases are now comparable to screen printed fabrics. I do my best to keep you supplied with drool-worthy fabrics, and some of the new digital prints are definitely in that category!

Our annual year-end clearance sale runs from November 29 through December 2. We'd rather sell it than count it! Watch our website for more details. Until next month, may your bobbin be full!
